

Gappu & the little patch of tomorrow.

A little story about patience, care
and finding a new beginning.

MEET GAPPU · THE GENTLE GARDENER

Patient

Big-hearted

A little dreamy

Gappu tends the smallest corner of Mishi's kingdom. His favourite thing is a new leaf. His little challenge? He sometimes wants to help so much that he forgets to pause. He is learning that a little care, given often, can be enough.

01 · SOMETHING OLD

A new home for a tiny seed

One morning, Gappu found an old clay cup beside the garden path. "You're too lovely to throw away," he whispered. Mishi brought a little soil, and together they tucked a seed into its new home.

02 · A LITTLE CARE

Just a small sip

The next morning, there was only soil. Gappu almost tipped in a whole jug of water. Then he paused. "Perhaps it needs a little, not a lot." Mishi helped him pour a small sip. They left a sunny spot beside the cup and went to play.

03 · SOMETHING NEW

The little patch of tomorrow

For several mornings, they came back to look. Then, one day, a little green leaf appeared. "We can't hurry a seed," said Gappu. "But we can keep it company." The old cup had a new job, and the garden had a new beginning.

Little by little is a lovely way to grow.

AFTER THE STORY · PLAY TOGETHER

Your own pretend garden

1. Make a little cup with your hands. Imagine a tiny seed sleeping inside.
2. Wiggle your fingers to make gentle pretend rain.
3. Take a slow breath together. Open one finger like a new leaf.

A question to share: “What could we care for together?” Let your child answer with a word, a sound, a point, or their own little story.
